 Maria Church - 55-

As we arrive for our first day of school
 In this, another year at M. H. S.,
 Some upperclassman hands us each a sheet
 Of yellow paper headed "What to Do First."
 For most of us this scene has now become Familiar, and the paper represents
 The start of a new year. In this year, as
 In others, there'll be many things we want
 To be remembered—our achievements, joys,
 And even disappointments. So, that these Events may never be forgotten, we,
 The Senior Class of Marietta High, present . . .

the best of luck in all your future years!

DEDICATION

Because we appreciate the personal interest she has always taken in our class by helping us with our various projects, such as bake sales, rummage sales, and class picnics, even after she was no longer our official advisor, and the kind and considerate help and advice she has always given us, we dedicate this 1954 Orian to . . .

SENIOR CLASS SONG

Words by—Ruth Williamson

Music—"Halls of Ivy"

Farewell, our Marietta,
The school we love so dear,
We always will remember
You through all of the years.

When we have left thy halls
And gone on our way,
We all will return
To you some day.

The friends that we have made here
Forever will remain,
In all our hearts and minds
Until we meet again.

And now the time for parting
Is soon drawing nigh,
With tears in our eyes
We shall now say good-bye.

EDITORIAL STAFF

These are the students who are responsible for the contents of your Orion. Their work lasts for about six months of the school year. Each staff member has the responsibility of preparing his own section. There are many jobs which go into the making of a yearbook, including taking the pictures, working out the cover designs, preparing the written matter, and laying out the pages.

We have done our best, and now here is our product for your judgment.

Senior Student Council

The Senior Student Council has had a very active year. Projects carried out were many and varied. They were responsible for the weekly broadcast over WMOA; conducted Youth-in-Government election; conducted a contest for a design for a school flag; collected toys for Salvation Army; sponsored two assemblies from Sorenson Company; decorated halls and office for Christmas; and provided devotional readings at the opening of school the week before Christmas and the week before Easter.

Junior Student Council

The Junior Student Council meets at noon on alternate Fridays. By carrying the master locker keys, its members render a helpful service to the student body. A first semester project, which requires much time and patience, is the identification and distribution of individual student pictures. Their Christmas assembly decorations furnish a background for the choral groups, and each year they compile another complete scrap-book record of all high school news and events.

Quill and Scroll

Virginia Kline, Jane Callander, Jan Asch, Dick Eddy, Jason Kimball, Donna Mann, Peggy Upstill.

The Quill and Scroll is a national organization which has several requirements for membership. Some of these are that they must be a junior or a senior, be in the top one-third of the class and have a certain number of inches of their writing printed in the school paper.

Senior High Original Staff

In the past year, the Original Staff has striven to attain a mark of high-quality journalism. Each paper printed represents skill on the part of reporters, editors, advisors and typists. During the year, four junior students edited the whole paper, while the junior high and sports pages were made up by three seniors.

The staff has published twelve issues, and is to be congratulated for their fine school paper.

Junior High Original Staff

These Junior High students edit a page of their own in the Original under the supervision of a student advisor. The page is a paper within a paper with a feature, sports, and club section.

The reporters for this page met once a week at noon for a class in learning news-work. They also visited the printers to see how a paper is printed.

Senior Y-Teens

As the youth of the Y.W.C.A., all Y-teens have as their purpose to grow as a person, to grow in friendship with peoples of all races, religions, and nationalities, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God.

Y-teens may well be proud of their club this year. One of the outstanding accomplishments was receiving the "Amy Shuey Bookwalter Award" which was presented as first prize in the state of Ohio to the Y-teen Club doing the most to carry out the Y-teen purpose.

Service activities included the annual Christmas party for the Children's Home, participation in the Tuberculosis Association Christmas drive, sponsoring the Easter assembly and club programs concerning human relations.

They also had a very full social season with their Spring Dinner Dance, Christmas and Homecoming Dances, and parties after football and basketball games. Later events, were the Mother-Daughter Tea and chili supper.

DAS ABENTEUER DER NEUJAHRSNACHT

New Year's Eve brings real adventure to Rosie Bittner, maid to the Countess Bonau, and Philip Stark, a poor florist. They trust that Philip's lottery ticket may win the grand prize. Rosie has a lovely new party dress, a gift of the countess, but Philip has to relinquish the party to act as night watchman for his ailing father.

The merry crown prince, coming from the royal masked ball, chances to meet Philip as he calls out the hours. When the prince demands that they exchange robes and roles for half an hour, Philip is forced to accept or offend his Royal Highness.

While Philip is at the masked ball, he succeeds in reconciling the estranged Countess Bonau and the King's Chamberlain and threatens to expose an ambitious nobleman who aspires to be Prime Minister, and hopes to attain it by bribing the Crown Prince to use his influence with the King.

Meanwhile the Crown Prince has been going from street to street singing verses about the dishonest officials of his father's court. Rosie, hearing the nightwatchman, believes it is Philip and, seeing the heavy money bag he carries, thinks they have won the grand prize. The slandered officials have Philip and the Prince arrested before they can exchange clothes. After much anxiety, Philip is exonerated and he and Rosie receive not only the bag of money from the Prince but from the King the promise of a position as castle gardener with a home on the royal estate.

M. H. S. Football Record

As a result of fine coaching and hard work put in by all the boys, the Tiger Football Team proved to be the best in many years. Although they were outweighed in every game by at least ten pounds per man, top physical condition proved to be the determining factor of every game. With a 7-0 record in the C. O. L. the Tigers brought home the first championship in sixteen years; a credit they well deserved.

C. O. L. Champs

It was a proud occasion when the trophy at the right was presented to Captain Don Lauer during a special assembly. This marked the first time that Marietta has received any award for football in the last seventeen years. The winning of this achievement was not only a team victory but also one for the school as well. Our school should be very proud of our team for the excellent showing this year. The Tigers came from an all losing season to an all winning one. This should prove to everyone what spirit and determination can do. We should not forget what a wonderful job the coaches did. Their day was not finished after practice, but sometimes just beginning, for they spent long hours trying to figure out different situations. The whole school would like to say a job well done.

Harold Offenberger and Coach Guinn.

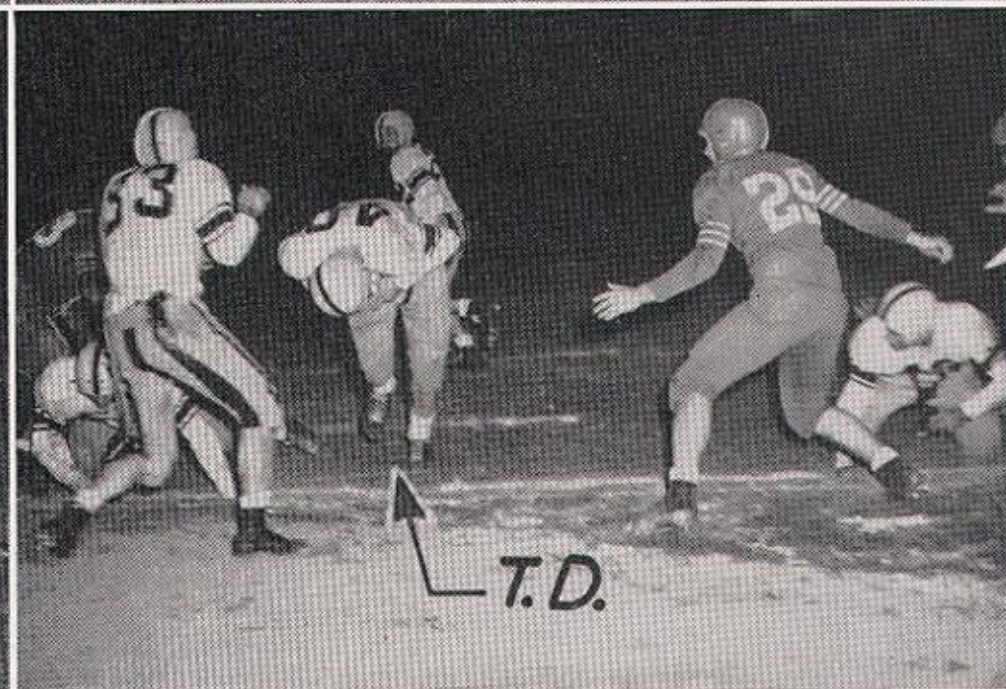

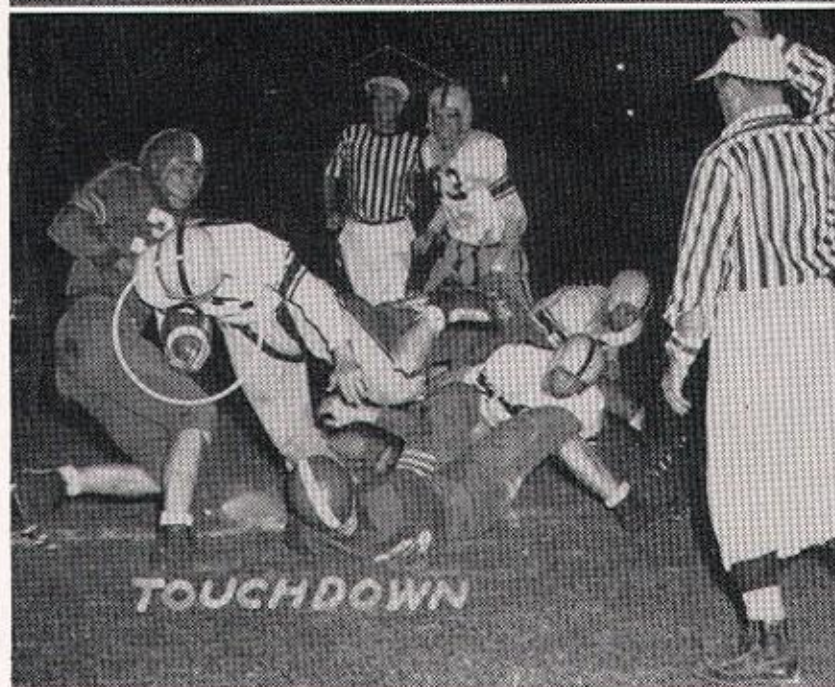

Tom Skipton, Don Lauer, and Junior Cheeseman.

Harold Offenberger, one of the outstanding players on the squad, was named the most valuable player in the league. He was chosen to the All-State squad. Harold is the first boy to receive this honor at Marietta High School. Another honor came to him after the season was over; along with Bill Stevens, he was chosen to play in the North-South game in August.

Tom Skipton, Don Lauer, and Junior Cheeseman were chosen to the All C. O. L. first team.

Junior Prom

DOROTHY HAWN

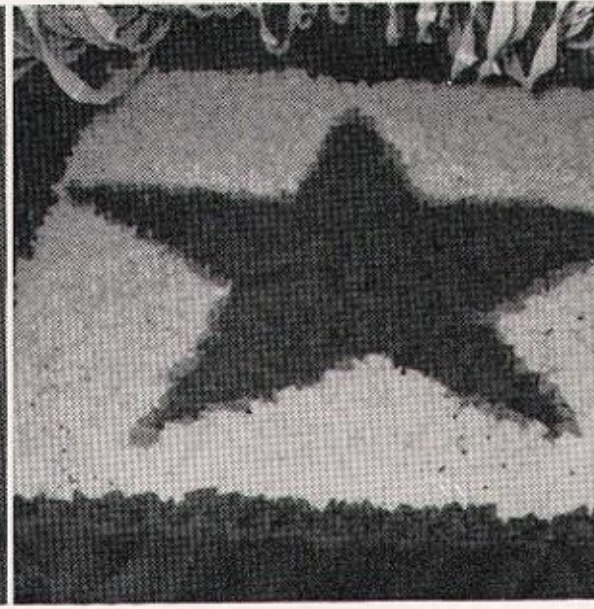

Honoring the Class of '53, the annual Junior Prom was held Saturday, May 9, 1953, at the Betsey Mills Club Gymnasium. The theme of the dance was "Stairway to the Stars" with a huge star in the entrance-way of the gym. In the middle of the dance floor was a large stairway built from the floor to the ceiling. The colors of the graduating class, light and dark blue, were carried out in the streamers. Russell Weiss and Dorothy Hawn reigned as King and Queen of the dance, with Fred Hunter, David Ellis, Sue Anderson, and Pat LaFaber as their attendants. Dick Van Dusen and his band played for the dance.

Congrats, Dottie and Russ!

Homecoming

BONNIE WARFIELD

A beautiful, clear, cool evening was the setting for our Homecoming on October 16. A thrilling game was provided for the fans with our Tiger team beating Newark 20-13. At half-time Bonnie Warfield was crowned Homecoming Queen by Captain Don Lauer, who presented her with a crown of white mums and a big kiss. The Senior Class presented the Queen with a large arm bouquet of yellow mums, and the Queen and her attendants, Carolyn Strecker and Sandra Smith, with mum corsages. Before the game there was a big parade with nine floats competing for top honors. First prize for the best float went to the Senior G. A. A., second prize to the Juniors, and third prize to the Seniors. After the game a dance was held at the Betsey Mills Club Gymnasium with the Queen and her attendants reigning over the festivities. The theme of the dance, which was "Fall Frolic", was carried out in the decorations of autumn colors and leaves. Richard Wires and his Tune-Toppers provided the music for the dance.

3. The abiding place of the affections, esp. domestic affections.

1. Having an education complete according to an accepted standard.

AFTER LIVING AT HOME AND STUDYING AT MARIETTA COLLEGE

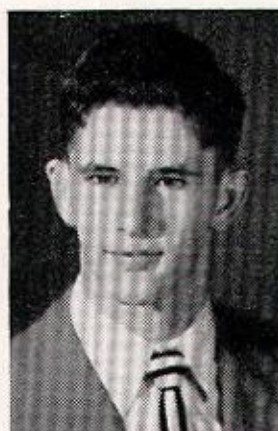

MHS graduates have this to say:

"The closeness and unity at Marietta College is much akin to that at MHS. MC has provided me with a definite goal and many close and lasting friendships."

Ann James, 1950.

*Best of luck!
Dave - take care of Florida!
Ann James*

"Living at home and acquiring a part-time job, if a student wishes to earn his way through, is a big advantage. Going to a small school also gave me a better chance in sports."

Dave Drennen, 1951.

"... and here, everyone gets to know everyone else. I feel that the speech department can't be beaten anywhere. Marietta College has become a tradition in our family—I'm the seventh one to go here."

—Sara Muscari, 1951.

For information, contact
Mrs. Mildred Eberle
Director of Admissions

"One of the relationships I've enjoyed the most at Marietta has been the close and friendly cooperation between the High School and the College. Both have much in common—an increasing number of students who claim both schools as their alma mater."

President W. Bay Irvine, 1912.

We take pride . . .

in producing this, the thirty-sixth issue of the Orian. Throughout the years, our plant has printed every issue, with one exception, since 1919.

It is gratifying to us that many of our customers rely upon our plant to produce their printed matter, year after year. They know that skilled craftsmen and modern equipment will permit their orders to be completed economically, promptly . . . and right!

Dave -
 What are we going to do
 this afternoon?
 Or more, Cairns, P-Bury, etc.
 Boy are we going to have fun on the picnic. I don't ever forget all the fun we've had together and I can't wait for the fun we are going to have in the future. Remember the old truck and the going sound you made. I wish you old the success and loads of happiness in the years to come. Let's hope we can help Adrian do? ---? Again I say good luck to a swell guy and a wonderful classmate.

LUCK

P.S. Don't ever forget
 Clark; Jerry "Let's check out"; Louise "Red Cheek"
 Ernie "No Head" Diefried; Luke "Baldy Bunkles";
 Ruth "Honey" Booker; Gordon "Blatt";
 Harmon; Bill "Little Shaver" Miller;
 Adrian "No Beard" Caspary;
 George "Feet" Blake;
 and at last, me
